

Chalmers Memorial Church Newsletter Christmas 2010

From the Locum Minister:

Research suggests that after 30 yrs of growing prosperity the people of Europe are feeling less happy and not more so. This is quite unexpected and it seems likely that in the future more attention will be paid to what gives us all a sense of well being.

Of course we can all chip in with reasons that might explain why British people are not as buoyant as they should be. Someone might feature the relentless pressure of modern life, jobs more demanding, less time to stop and stare. Another person might point out that divisions have widened between different sections of society and there is more distrust. Yet someone else might say that there is a relentless emphasis on spending power and the less well paid or those unable to find work can feel that it is very unfair.

For all its glitz and party spirit the modern Christmas is not making people feel better about themselves. In Christian tradition it is a festival of light and love but somehow it has become a commercial jamboree that comes across as shallow. In the rush to "enjoy" Christmas it has for many people lost its spiritual meaning. In this country which owes so very much to its Christian heritage we find the title "winter festival" being substituted for Christmas and that is just sad. Christmas is life giving and precious. It spells out in a beautiful and uplifting way the dignity of every human life.

It is certainly true that we are part of a material world and there is no denying the fact that we all need a healthy material provision for our life and health and that is a profoundly Christian value but we are called to go further than that. We are called to build a world that combines earthly realism and spiritual truth and to weave these two aspects of our experience together. Christmas tells us how God came in love among us and can satisfy our souls.

I would invite everyone to share our services this Christmas. I pray that our Advent and Christmas services can be lights guiding us to the stable where the love of God was radiant in the face of the Christ child.

Graham Black

Christmas Prayers

And the angel said to them "Be not afraid; for behold I bring you good news of a great joy which will come to all the people; for to you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord!

Luke 2:10

Prayers for the World

Lord at this Christmas season we would bring before you the many areas of the world where there is great suffering through conflicts, floods, earthquakes and disease. Help us to be generous with our time, friendship, skills, money and possessions where possible to meet the needs of our brothers and sisters in such dire situations. We pray especially for the Churches in these lands that they may be upheld and encouraged in all they seek to do in Your Name.

Prayers for the Church

Lord we give thanks for the ministry and friendship of Mr Black and pray that throughout this Christmas season you will bless him in all he is called to do in your Name. We pray for all involved in various services and activities that in the midst of the busyness and excitement the true message of Christmas will be communicated well.

Father we would bring before you the Nominating Committee entrusted with the task of finding a new minister. Grant them wisdom and guidance in their work and we pray that it won't be too long before the minister of your choice will be found.

Prayers for the Lonely

Gracious Lord we pray for folks in our Church fellowship who are not looking forward to Christmas because of the loss of a loved one. Grant them comfort and provide for them in their need. We pray too for those known to us who live alone and those in care. Be near to those who are worried about their health and those with difficult family problems.

Children's Prayer

Heavenly Father we would bring to you all children who do not know the joy of a family; children who have lost a parent; children who have to be carers; children who live on the streets; children who have to work at an early age and children who have a terminable illness. Bless all who endeavour to bring joy into their lives at Christmas time.

Prayer of Thanks

Gracious Heavenly Father as we approach the Advent Season we thank you for all the love and compassion you had for each one of us, so much so that you sent your only Son into the world to be our Saviour. Forgive us Lord for all our shortcomings and help us truly to worship You in spirit and in truth. Help us to take time to meditate on what Jesus really means to us and rejoice in the salvation that you offer.

In Jesus name we pray - Amen
